

Opportunities with Afrinspire

Volunteering in the Afrinspire Cambridge Office

If you would like to help empower some of the poorest people in the world out of poverty, then you can do so by volunteering in the Cambridge office of Afrinspire. We are looking for volunteers who can assist on a regular basis. Competence in Microsoft Office, working with Word, Excel and Powerpoint is necessary for collating data from and about Africa and the engagement of Afrinspire with many African partners across a variety of themes. Analysing data to assess measures and impact. Reporting, creating communications and funding proposals. Supervision and guidance is available

Training opportunities to undergraduates and post-graduates.

- Volunteering in the Afrinspire Cambridge Office, on a regular or ad-hoc basis.
- Summer student field visit in July to Afrinspire partners in Uganda
- Intern in the Afrinspire Cambridge office, in summer from 2 to 6 weeks when we organise a rota in August and September over about a 7 week period.
- Three Month Placement between October to December or March and May
- Dissertation opportunities based on Afrinspire connections in Africa

Students and graduates gaining experience with Afrinspire have been able to use that experience to further their careers in international development.
